

Accessibility

We have made every effort to make this website accessible and easy to use for everyone, no matter what browser you choose to use, and whether or not you have any disabilities.

The site's layout takes into account users who are blind or visually impaired. It is fully compatible with popular screen reading software. If you have difficulties using a mouse, the site can be navigated using only a keyboard.

The website complies with Level A of the W3C's Web Content Accessibility Guidelines.

If you have any issues, comments or suggestions regarding accessibility on the website, please contact DPN Website Enquiries.
